

VBHS Enrichment Opportunities for African American Students

Vero Beach High School will work with African American students to enrich the curriculum. Coach Jankowski is currently selecting a group of students for a field trip to observe art by the original Highwaymen. This field trip will also include discussion with the artists regarding historical and cultural events.

Remediation will be addressed through ongoing efforts to provide course recovery both after school and during school. Tutoring will be provided everyday after school in the library.