

African American Achievement Plan

Monthly Update

April 14, 2020

AFRICAN AMERICAN ACHIEVEMENT PLAN

The African American Achievement Plan was initially discussed at a School Board Workshop on February 11, 2020. The School Board of Indian River County approved the African American Achievement Plan on February 25, 2020. The plan included an African American Achievement Progress Report Card which denotes progress measures that will be monitored throughout the year. The report card data is updated monthly to ensure consistent implementation and monitoring of action steps as outlined in the African American Achievement Plan.

TIMELINE

2/20

- School principals and district administrators reviewed the plan and discussed their responsibilities

2/25

- African American Achievement Plan was Board approved

3/2

- Schools created their own Implementation Plans

3/6

- District staff reviewed the plans and provided feedback

3/9

- Schools and District Departments updated their plans and were uploaded to the District's Webpage

3/12

- Staff discussed with principals the data requirements and completion logs

3/13

- Last day prior to COVID-19 closure

March

- Support was given to principals and district staff via meetings, email, Teams webinars, and phone calls

PROGRESS REPORT CARD

Areas of Progress

Several measures showed progress in closing or eliminating the gap between Black/African American and White students:

- Participation in Extended Learning Opportunities
- Participation in Extracurricular Activities
- School Recognition Ceremonies
- Arrests
- Least Restrictive Environment
- Employee Attrition Rates

Almost 2000 data measures were captured for:

- 4 goal areas;
- 44 action steps; and
- in addition to other backup data provided in the progress report.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR IMPROVEMENT

- Academic Performance (~10-20% Achievement Gap depending on subject)
- Kindergarten Readiness (64% White, 43% Black/AA)
- Graduation Rate (92% White, 81% Black/AA)
- Office Discipline Referrals (12% White, 25% Black/AA)
- Suspensions (ISS: 3% White, 6% Black/AA; OSS: 3% White, 8% Black/AA)
- ACE Enrollment (34% White, 47% Black/AA)
- Teacher Demographics (88.7% White, 9.9% Black/AA)

IMPACT OF COVID-19

- Impact to AAA plan
 - No academic outcome measures for the school year
 - No longer monitoring Discipline and ESE data
 - No end of year data chats at the school or district level
- How will this impact plan moving forward
 - Continue to monitor i-Ready and Achieve 3000 usage and data
 - Moving Full Steam Ahead:
 - Review of Master School schedules
 - Review of Discipline plans
 - Update Student Progression Plan
 - Update Recruitment Plan
 - Creation of a plan to monitor graduation
 - Develop a Plan PD on culturally responsive instructional practices

Evidence of completion is now available on the district's webpage for completed action steps.
