

Hiring administrators are required to ask the following questions for all instructional positions.

1. Why did you decide to become a teacher?
2. How do you handle a student is constantly disruptive or defiant?
3. How do you use data to differentiate instruction and support students, so all students can learn?
4. How do you include parents and/or guardians in their child's education?
5. What is your teaching philosophy?