This Week's Focus

Conferences: Please make sure you have communicated to parents your availability for parent teacher conferences. This is a great time to continue to build upon your relationships with your families.

AR Goals: This weeks starts the new quarter for AR Goals. Please find time this week to communicate new goals to your students, as well as, how they did on their 1st quarter goal.

Planning: Next week we will continue with our calls. I am planning to attend the after school meetings face to face if I can.
