(If more than one action step is evidenced here, please include all action step #'s and a brief description of each.)

Explanation of Evidence: Our Academic advisor will work with all African-American students toward college readiness. All African-American students will be advised as to their future plans after high school and given opportunities to take college entrance exams.

Results of Action Taken: The results of this action will be forth coming through scheduled meeting with each African-American student with our Academic advisor.

Reflection: Although we are a temporary placement facility for middle and high school students, we will always continue to monitor and encourage our African-American students to attend college and provide the necessary resources to do so.
