

1.36-

We only have one formal recognition ceremony throughout the course of the year (numbers submitted), but we strive to recognize students on our daily announcements and a reward by teachers nominating students who have been caught doing something nice or being helpful